or Us Who Were Advisers ...

This was a year of challenge.

We prepared for class — and had to prepare well — to face 713 searching young minds, answer their questions, clear up their doubts, and instill in them that certain something that would shape their philosophy of life today, preparing them to lead tomorrow.

We provided a wholesome atmosphere in which they could study and learn.

Their energy was infinite and so we were moderators for their clubs, sponsors for their dances, and cheering enthusiasts at their basketball tournament.

They offered their ideas and vitality to us

and we tried to repay by helping them develop mentally,
emotionally, and spiritually.

Meeting Demands

Monroe and Bancroft streets was the site a which Notre Dame opened her doors in Octo ber, 1904. Then, after 56 years, in February 1960, she — and — we moved to 3535 Sylvani Avenue and a modern new building.

The school is staffed by lay teachers and by Sisters who belong to the Toledo Province of the Sisters of Notre Dame, an international community with their Generalate in Rome Sister Mary Theophane has served as principal for the past six years.

June marks the graduation of Notre Dame' 60th Senior Class – the first to spend all four years at the present site.

Secretary Sister Mary Leon and Principal Sister Mary Theophane discuss next year's scheduling plans.

Treasurer Sister Mary Azelie seems to approve the transcript which Secretary Sister Mary John Joseph has just typed for Sister Mary Madonna, our guidance counselor.

of Educational Organization

The Faculty Directs Class Scheduling

"Miscellaneous and multitudinous" best describes the duties Miss Geraldine Gerber held through the 34 years she spent with Notre Dame. Guided by her capable hands — who says women are poor drivers? — our Volkswagen took the Sisters to various appointments and meetings. If an urgent telephone call had to be made, Miss Gerber was the woman for the job. Machines like the addressograph and mimeograph required her calculating touch. She noted changes in telephone numbers and addresses, helping to make an accurate student directory. As mailing and correspondence accompany the running of a school, so did Miss Gerber.

New machines add quality to any office. Miss Geraldine Gerber will later run these papers through the copy-maker.

Miss Geraldine Gerber took care of both written correspondence and personal contact through visits and telephone calls.

After joining our staff in January, Miss Lucy Laibe assumed secretarial duties which included assisting Sister Mary Leon with student scholastic records.

Sister Mary Joachim, librarian, Sister Mary Charlotte, and Sister Mary Coletta turn from their perusal of the card catalogue to greet our roving photographer.

Go to Class With Visions of What Must Be Taught

Sisters Mary Bernardus, Mary Aloise, Mary Elisbeth, Mary Marilyn, and Mary Llaura turn to Sister Mary Carroll for suggestions on her presentation of novels.

In Applying These Studies, Students Prepare for Potential Careers

Has Sister Mary de Sales found the answer? Sisters Mary Therese, Mary St. Ralph, and Mary Vincent appear to think so as, after searching through various historical reference books, they look to her for the solution to their dilemma.

Business instructors Sisters Mary Jerolyn, Mary Rosarita, Mary Jon, and Mary Dalene "practice what they teach" - speed and accuracy in shorthand and typing.

Sister Mary Ferdinand seems to have found an ingenious method of solving for that elusive unknown quantity and happily shares the knowledge with fellow math teachers Sister Mary Brendan and Sister Mary Raymund.

Aiming for Skill And Fitness, Arts Students Develop Creativity

After having analyzed the art content of their sketches, Mrs. Patricia Gstalder returns them with her critical evaluation of Art I hopefuls.

Sisters Mary Genevra and Mary Rosalee discuss the close relation of art and music.

Though most often followed, the role of wife and mother is sometimes the least understood. Home arts instructors Sister Mary Albertus and Sister Mary Matina teach the concepts of Christian womanhood.

Judging by the smiles, the change in basketball rules seems to meet with the approval of the Physical Education Instructor Miss Joan Leonhardt and her gym class.

French fries are an ever-popular favorite here at NDA. When their aroma permeates the air, beware the onslaught of hungry girls! Mts. Sophia Bugaj, by preparing the french fries, helps to stave famine.

Quantities of low-calorie salads are a "must" avows Mts. Emma Gross.

Miss Nancy Palombi works in the cafeteria after a typical lunch hour shared by 713 girls.

Betty Crocker has nothing over on Sisters Mary Cyprian and Mary St. Aloysius.

Maintaining The School And Nourishing The Girls Keep Workers Busy

Many contribute their efforts to taking a school look and be as nice is it can be. Appreciation goes to tose who prepare food in the caferia, to Mr. Peter who takes care of I that only a man can do — and do ght, and to Miss Nancy Palombi ho, among other things, keeps the tills and windows clean and bright, sters Mary Rose, Mary Austa, Mary St. Xavier, lary Alvern, and Mary St. Philip pause to peek the cafeteria line.

For Us Who Were Energetic ...

This was a year of activity.

We began by installing our officers, and from then on ...

Through the Student Council we joined with other schools -

a car in the St. Francis Homecoming, a hootenamy with St. Ursula and McAuley, a dance with Cardinal Stritch and Central.

We presented assemblies - sometimes in English, sometimes in French or Spanish, and we displayed great acting ability

- or something -

by imitating the Beatles in our talent show.

We formed chibs for almost every interest and ability.

There were serious moments too -

Retreat, May Crowning, the Youth Witness to Christ Conference - and pray and plan.

Student Council officers are Patricia Pearce, secretary, Darla Simonis, president, Carol Stoll, vice-president, and Judith Sawicki, treasurer.

Newly-Installed Officers Face Challenge For New Year

In November all officers were formally installed in their respective offices. Each president lit her candle from a central flame—this flame symbolizing unity. The ceremony also included a pledge recited by all officers and representatives. The entire student body then sang a hymn in honor of the Blessed Virgin and ended the ceremony by singing the Alma Mater.

The newly installed class presidents: sophomore, Barbara Stutz, senior, Carol Wintersteen and junior, Donna Fournier inspect and comment on the Papal flag.

anta's Mailbox is open, deliveries have been made, and juniors ather to tear open Christmas cards and exchange greetings.

Judith Sawicki counts her pennies as Judith Radlinski tries to coax Susan Smith to lend her enough to send her letters via Notre Dame.

Student Council Helps Santa Claus During Rush Season

Stamp and seal, lick and paste. Santa's helpers prepare to send Christmas cards through the school's temporary post office.

February 8 Marks Dance at Naval Armory – Mid-Winter Magic

The annual junior-senior Christmas Dance, "Moonlight and Mistletoe," was the setting for the crowning of the 1964 Student Council Queen, Kathleen Craft. The queen's court consisted of Mary Ann Gallagher, Linda Guitteau, Patricia Pearce, and Carol Wintersteen.

Corrine Baumgartner, 1963's Student Council Queen, crowned Kathleen and led the dance with her escort Thomas Welch. Jim Elliot's Band provided the music.

JoAnn Warren of Maumee High School, smiled with the grace of a queen last February 8, for she was chosen Toledo Area Student Council Queen.

If royalty drank Pepsi, traveled in sleighs, danced, and had fun, Mary Janet Getzinger and John DuMont would qualify for the throne of England!

Playing the guitar and singing folk favorites was Betty Rich, assisted by H Pauling. Together they sang down the list of the more popular tunes, concluded with the hootenanny ballad, "This land is your land . . ."

An NDA First - Academies Join In Song Fest

Who had the craving for the extra hot dog? Who knows? No one ever claimed it. Well, no matter, it was put to good use!

And you talk about fun! Well, so did the girls from McAuley, St. Ursula, and Notre Dame after an action-packed roast and songfest held at Notre Dame on November 9. We, the amateurs, sang along with Betty Rich of Mary Manse, and Dave Browning of Bowling Green, who provided that professional touch.

Volunteering, practicing, eliminating, practicing, practicing and more practicing went into assembling the cast of the hootenanny. Giving a final polish to a song before going on stage, is a group of teen folk singers.

Wrinkled sweatshirts, crazy skirts, a ragged straw hat, a colorful bandana, and "way-out" expressions characterize Roberta Kwapich and Kathleen Craft as individualists.

All-School Hop Attracts A Large Crowd To Relax After Mid-Term Exams

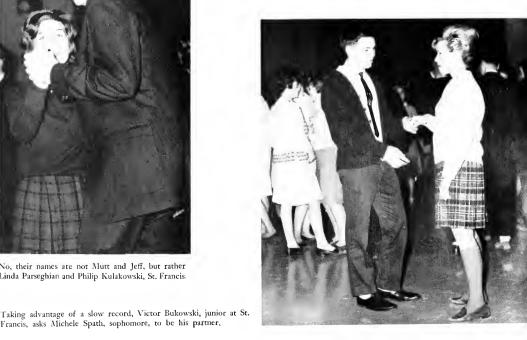

Nobody goes thirsty at a dance. Seniors Judith Roller, Jeanette Kertesz, and Mary Crowley help quench dancers' thirst. After the hop, teens invade the "Huts."

No, their names are not Mutt and Jeff, but rather Linda Parseghian and Philip Kulakowski, St. Francis-

Francis, asks Michele Spath, sophomore, to be his partner.

Spinning platters at the Mid-Term Hop, which was sponsored by the Student Council, was disc jockey Ron Laskey. Boys from St. Francis De Sales, Central Catholic, and Cardinal Stritch were invited to join us.

Concentration, time, and valuable paper, pencil, and space are the ingredients used by Barbara Benda to solve one simple math problem.

The members of the Math Club, moderated by Sister Mary Brendan, test their mathematical skill at each meeting by various ypes of problems. For instance, one problem gives a method of figuring out a person's birthday, both day and month. The officers are: Rebecca Baker, president; Dustyann Tyukody, vice-president; Marianna Whitman, secretary; and Joanne Blaine, reasurer.

To solve a difficult math problem, seek solitude. Betty Feehan tries to find the simplest process for tackling this one.

Two and two is six? Not according to the slide rules of officers Dustyann Tyukody, Joanne Blanchard, Rebecca Baker, and Marianna Whitman.

Mu Alpha Theta Helps Give "Right Angle"

Are they going back to classes? No, these are just a few of the JCWA members exiting from one of their monthly meetings.

Carolyn Wheat, Rebecca Baker, and Marianna Whitman hit the books harder than ever since they were chosen for the Quiz Bowl. Absent: Marlene Shiple CWA officers are: Leslie DeVine, secretary-treasurer; Jacqueline Gossman, president; arolyn Wheat, publicity representative; and Diane Calmes, vice-president.

The speaker at the monthly meeting of the JCWA held the attention of area student members.

ICWA Aims Toward World Peace; Ship Hope Benefits from Area Quiz Bowl

The primary purpose of the Junior Council on World Affairs is to better acquaint its members with current local and national problems. The JCWA, under social studies instructor Sister Mary de Sales, is active in the Area Quiz Bowl, the proceeds of which are donated to the ship Hope. Ten Toledo area high schools participate in the match. They are questioned on subjects ranging from ancient history to current government problems.

Patricia Pearce, vice-president; Diana Gable, president; Margaret Fisher, secretary; and Kathleen Craft, treasurer.

Graduates, Carol Patterniti and Mary Cousino, told the juniors and seniors the real behind-the-scenes story of the student nurse.

By Probing Medical Secrets, They Prepare For Their Life's Work

Future Nurses, moderated by Sister Mary Donald Joseph, become more interested in personal and community health. This year they visited the Sunshine Home for Exceptional Children. Students from hospitals were guest speakers and gave information on the hard work and fun involved in the life of a nurse.

"Is she or isn't she alive?" is the question in the mind of Monica Malak who tries out her nursing talents on Janice Romer.

Science Club treasurer Karen Walker and Vice-President Sandra Avery discuss scientific procedure. They seem to be preparing an experiment in titration.

The Science Club, moderated by Sister Mary Angelus, has pursued knowledge of the universe by its activities this year. Members toured Owens-Illinois November 1, heard a guest speaker from Sun Oil, and saw several movies on aeronautics. Science Club members receive pins and have the opportunity to earn certificates from Future Scientists of America and Science Clubs of America.

Science Club Probes Mystery of Matter

Science Club officers, Cheryl Simonis and Josephine Brown assemble plans and choose topics for discussion.

At the first monthly meeting of the Science Club, Cheryl Simonis explains the year's program which promises to be as much fun as it is hard work.

Endcavoring to excite a greater interest in education, the Future Teachers Club sponsors visits to Ladyfield and Mary Immaculate Schools. The members view typical classrooms during a teaching session, observe the methods of the teachers, and the corresponding responses of students. Primarily, members visit the kindegarten and lower grades. Those concerned with secondary education are given a supervisory position over various study halls. Our club is affiliated with the area and national groups. We were the host school for an area meeting in the fall which was attended by students from Ottawa Hills, Maumee, Perrysburg, and Start.

Preparing for the next Future Teachers meeting are Kate Sturtz, vice-president; Mariene Shiple, president; Jeanne Reger, treasurer; and Susan Smith, secretary.

Future Teachers Learn About

The Magic Of Instructing A Child

A typical teacher? Well, all elements are present-glasses, text, and Nancy Meyer. Only experience is lacking.

Maybe Barbara Pollauf does know how to spell, but Kathleen Tripp is taking no chances. After all, she is a future teacher!

National Business Honor Society Prepares Members To Manage in Home, Business, or Higher Education

Do we have guest speakers? Do our students actively articipate in meetings? The answer is YES! Our guests re high on the business stepladder; and our girls may not e the best actors, but the skits which are given are all abject to practical application.

lary Ann Boeke takes time out to read the list of girls who are achieved outstanding merit in business and English.

Donna Kujawa, president of the National Business Honor Society, dictates sums to Alice Potoczki, secretary-treasurer, while Linda Guitteau, vice-president, watches.

preparation for the next National Business Honor Society meeting, Judith Meyer points tt to Barbara Przybylski some common mistakes secretaries make when transcribing.

Mr. Patton of Stautzenberger's Business College pointed out to the girls the advantages of a business college over a university business course.

Mission Members Do Their Part In Going Forth To Save Souls for Christ

Margaret Jagodzinski informs Janet Rohr of the present amount of the mission donations of each homeroom.

Gayle Grenier beams home the fact that she just received the certificate for her first ransom and wants to contribute to another.

Vice-president Suzanne Carroll, President Mary Ann Lanzinger, and Secretary-Treasurer Mary Rychlewski seem pleased with the weekly mission results.

Barbara Bebell, Donna Burnard, Marie Curtis, and Diane Chicolini worked on the Red Cross Peace Mobile, which was sent to the World War II veterans of (indiana.

Nancy Gabringer whispers to Marlene Dantzer, while Carol Wintersteen and Roberta Reick try to purchase popcorn for an after-exams movie.

Before the Honor Day assembly, Susan Feeney, Anne Lauer, and Donna Burnard discussed grades, honors, and teachers.

Mr. Rizk presents a copy of his book to Judith Sawicki for the library. Report of Nov. 22 tragedy followed his speech.

Kathleen Frazier and Diane Willard, our version of the kind-hearted man in red and his wife, present a one-hundred dollar donation.

Christmas Assembly Serves As Setting For Thespian's Talent

"To be understood is the aim of all communication whether speaking to one person or one hundred." The speech classes, under the direction of Sister Mary Clarice, strive for just this. The students start with nursery rhymes, to build confidence and poise, and continue through dramatizations, "Challenge to Citizenship" essays, radio scripts, impromptus, and the Spring assembly.

Christmas is a gay season – the delight in giving, and the sweet smile of the Christ child. Mary Etta Kane interpreted these joys in a Christmas ballet.

seph and Mary, portrayed by Roberta Kwapich and Mary nn Gallagher, look disappointed on being turned away.

"I am the very model of a modern major general," "Speak the speech I pray you." These are a few of the lines that the speech classes have used to help them obtain expression, gestures and self-confidence. These little things helped these students prepare for the Christmas Assembly. Row I: Kathleen Collins, Nancy Nusser, Darla Simonis, Susan Dean, Jeanne Reger, Jacqueline Gossman, Therese Hemmeter. #### Sodality Offers

Varied Activities Accented

By Active Spiritual Life

The Sodality of Our Lady, headed by Mary Crowley as nior prefect, has striven to set an example of Mary-like prayer to and Christ-like apostolicity. Among its activities have been to annual Halloween Party, several days of Recollection, a hristmas Party with girls from Marybrook Academy, and the mual retreat at Carey, Ohio.

Did someone mention Barnum and Bailey? Janice Zarecki and Diane Kujawa are in need of a good, stable position.

lizabeth Shehee couldn't be a Secret Service agent. No, couldn't be — or could she?

Costume finalists in the Sodality Halloween Party were Nancy Durst, and the Simonis sisters, Darla, Linda, and Cheryl.

Father Raymond Oosdyke, OFM Conv., stated, "There is no love without knowledge." To know yourself is to know, love, and serve God and man.

Confession is one of the outlets provided for in our spiritual program. Mary Rychlewski takes advantage of this opportunity.

t s Not A Disgrace To Fall But...

The life of a teen-ager is not an asy road; there are many pitfalls to e aware of. We cannot overcome nese obstacles until we understand him with God. During the annual tree-day retreat, Father Raymond, D.F.M. stressed this fact.

Father Raymond's retreat formula reads this way: meditate to know the answer.

Anita Wambold and Sally Robinson take time to say an extra rosary during retreat.

eeping in mind Father Raymond's theme for retreat, Marcia Beresot d Constance Ockuly stop to meditate on the Eleventh Station.

Barbara Kujawa has made her visit and now genuflects in adoration and reverently makes the Sign of the Cross.

April Concert Gives Sparkle to Glee Club's Ability

Officers Diane Willard, president, Colleen Gilbert, secretary, Suzanne Carroll, treasurer, and Sara Martin, vice-president, should be selecting music!

While other members of the Senior Glee Club receive last-minute instructions, Barbara Borer, Mary Crowley, and Nancy Meyer focus their undivided attention on backstage preparations before the concert.

Carlotta Owens and Sara Martin play a two-piano number, and would you believe it - they're good!

it. John's Men's Choir Gives Command Performance

For the second consecutive year the famed St. John's University Men's Chorus entertained in Notre Dame's auditorium. This year Mr. Gerhard Track, the director, gave both morning and evening performances. Selections included religious and secular subjects dating from the Middle Ages to modern times.

Susan Rowland hands Marcia Starzynski a copy of the finished produthat seems to please Barbara Bebell and Joan Connolly.

"Every letter counts one except w's and n's and t's and l's and l's and ..."

Judith Sawicki wonders if she'll ever figure out how to count headlines.

Ursula Miller and Kathleen Kennedy check the number of subscribers to the "Notre Dame," but Sharon Nowacki seems about ready to start reading a rival paper.

The "Notre Dame" Gives Latest Scoops

s Joan Durst got a scoop? Linda Parseghian seems elated but Rose ry Duschl, Mary Etta Kane, and Constance Nowakowski keep on ofreading.

ary Susan Suder smiles at Patricia Armel's joke in-the-making, while and Elekonich listens, and Carolyn Wheat pays no attention.

The girls look rather disgusted. Patricia's joke apparently did not go over with Mary Susan and Joan. Carolyn still seems uninterested.

To Produce Yearbook Full of Memories

Measuring, writing, and checking—all this and much more went into putting out the Regina. These girls put their hearts into making this book the best. Many tears were shed and many frustrating hours spent, but in the end, there was a joyful sigh of relief as the finished product rolled off the press.

For Us Who Were Sports Minded ...

This was a year of competition.

Whether throwing bowling balls down gutters -

"I couldn't find my own ball and this one just isn't swinging wildly at a softball that was already in the catcher's mitt -

ANY good." - Or

"I couldn't see it; the sun was in my eyes."

There was one thing to be said about us, we tried.

And we cheered . . .

School was never quite the same after the nights

 $of \ the \ basketball \ tournament. \ Or \ after$

Kathy Frazier won the ping-pong tournament for the fourth straight year.

We played hard and had fun -

most of the time.

Fair play is the sport of the Athletic Club officers, Kathleen Collins, Patricia Saeli, Cheryl Simonis, and Mary Pat McAvoy.

Athletic Club Officers Plan Sports Life

Athletic Club members stretched their spirits and their muscles throughout the year in the varied activities of their club.

Early in the year girls carrying book trooped down Monroe Street and invaded Westland Lanes. In between talking and eating snacks, some girls even bowled. Homework laden girls managed to send quite a number of splashes across the Catholic Club pool and quit a number of ping-pong balls across the table through the winter.

Early in March each of four classes cheered screamed, and otherwise rooted for their team at the basketball tournament, thus releasing pent-up energies and fervent class feelings.

Then, as sure as robins and green leave eager girls announced springtime by appearin on the tennis courts, by cracking ball bats of the sandlots, and by filling the indoor volley ball courts.

ND's Angels in the Outfield

Once Again Invade the Diamon

It's Mickey Mantle, it's Whitey Ford, no it's Donna Fournier warming up the old arm.

Any scouts around? Well, if so, Christine Connolly and Mary Seger will be signed up soon!

ennis and basketball related? Not really, but Amelia Essex comned her tennis racket and jumping ability to win that game.

ta Bova just can't decide whether to go after that ball or let it nunce by. Well, she did go after it, and earned herself a love three.

Tennis Enthusiasts Get in the Swing As Season Opens

As soon as the groundhog pops his head into the spring air, out come the tennis fans. Dressed in bermudas and sweatshirts, armed with rackets and balls, they prepare to wage battle across the nets once again.

Carol Heiing, a member of the Athletic Club, is getting in a few extra practice swings before the spring rush.

san Przybylski has to smile at her swift swing and easy-going ball, Susan practicing up for the spring tournaments.

Ping Pong Paddles Pop Again - Frazier Style

"This is a very serious game," Kathleen Frazier thought as she eyed that ping-pong ball.

It's Kathy Frazier again! Having batted those ping-pong balls for the fourth consecutive year, her achievement was amply rewarded with a gold trophy commemorating the event. The winners of the doubles match were Ellen and Janice Zarecki.

ish net? No, volleyball. Obviously, one of the junior teams seems to be all vrapped up in its work. What a ball!

Volleyballs Soar Over Nets

Preparing to serve that volleyball, this junior lines up, makes a fist and takes aim. Let's hope it's a long one.

No, the sky's not falling on these juniors. Nor are they holding the ceiling p. They're going to knock that volley ball back over the net—they hope.

Stimulating School Activity

February fifth marked the beginning of the annual intramural basketball tournament. Excitement mounted as the teams went onto the floor and started playing for the much coveted trophy. The coaches for the four teams were: seniors, Maureen Gallagher, Notre Dame graduate of 1959; juniors, Sue Grimley, alunna of St. Ursula; sophomores, Mary Jane Koop, Notre Dame graduate of 1962; and freshmen, Donna Welch, Notre Dame graduate of 1962. The game was refereed by Kathleen Kennedy, graduate of 1952. Score and time-keepers were Frances Krompak, alunna of Central Catholic and Diane Rich class of 1964.

Finals were played on February ninth, the juniors and seniors playing. For the second consecutive year the juniors won. After the two games the still enthusiastic spectators celebrated the victory in the cafeteria by buying snacks.

Frosh Open House Sponsors Friendly Spirit

One of the features of Open House, besides meeting the teachers, is the exhibition of the students work. Quick attention getters are the products of the art students. In Freshman year, these include abstracts, yarn drawings, and soap carvings.

To begin each new school year, the classes sponsor a Open House. Through this, th parents can become acquainte with the respective teachers an the many facilities which th school has to offer. It initiates more effective relationship an spirit of co-operation among par ents, teachers, and students. As sisting the teachers with cla activities are the Freshman cla officers. Elected by the student they represent the Freshman cla in school functions, such as Str dent Council. They are a integral part of the school leade ship program.

Religion is to the soul what study is to the nd. It develops the potentials and shapes a personality of an individual. This theme enlarged throughout the four-year series titled "Our Quest for Happiness." The eshman year begins with the creative love d power of God the Father. Supplementing the religion course is a guidance program, sich endeavors to prepare the student for ture problems, as well as to overcome eryday difficulties.

By analyzing the mistakes of past history, we gain the necessary experience for shaping the future. Before we can begin to eliminate poverty, wars, and the cancer of communism, we must know their origin. So the history course includes a study of the powerful nations that have risen and fallen, different peoples, their customs and their culture.

Either these history students are ambitious or the question is "Who discovered America?" Anyway, they're responsive.

Physical Fitness Is the Way

A sound mind in a sound body should be the aim of every American, as was expressed by the late President Kennedy in his physical-fitness program. No, it's not a mid-morning barbecue or neighborhood gab session. These freshmen have assembled in the parking lot to neet their big sisters. It's not just a social function, but a chance for he freshmen to inquire, to meet new students, and to learn some of Notre Dame's raditions. At the party the frosh dress as ittle girls with big hair bows and carry all-lay suckers. Some of the activities include a prize for the most original outfit, the bunny hop and the hokey-pokey. ### Open House Symbolizes Growing Interest In Teacher-Parent-Student Relationship

It's seldom that the girls' parents come to school. This is a new experience for Karen Petersen and Kathleen Meyer as their parents get acquainted.

The members of the Sophomore Class elect their officers with better assurance than they did as Freshmen, because by this time the girls are better acquainted with qualifications for leadership as well as with one another. Knowing that the success of the school year relies largely upon the leadership of those four girls, classmates base their choice on ability and character.

The students' academic success depends partly on cooperation between parents and teachers. Open House, arranged for an afternoon early in the year, gives them the opportunity to meet on an informal basis.

Religion Stimulates and Intensifies

Growth of Christ in Individuals

The sophomore religion course focuses on the study of Christ's life. As an aid the New Testament is used along with the textbook. Equally important is the study of the doctrine of the Holy Eucharist, which is analyzed in all its aspects as a sacrifice and a sacrament—the Mass and Holy Communion.

Group guidance is included as a regular part of the course. Sophomores learn the principal elements that contribute to personality development. Through this they learn to live with themselves and others as mature individuals.

The vocational subjects Typing I and Home Economics train the sophomores in efficiency and economy. For those looking forward to a career as book-keeper or secretary, typing is essential. Every Typing I student hopes to achieve 40 words per minute with accuracy by the end of the school year.

For students interested in foods and clothing, 1-tome Economics is offered. Food class teaches how to plan meals and how to economize when buying food. Clothing class gives students the opportunity to learn about fabrics, color combinations, and the art of sewing.

Parents and Teachers Discuss

Coming Year at Open House

School having just begun, Josephine Brown and Christine Connolly seem happy to have parents and teachers meet Making decorations for activities is one of many duties keeping these officers busy. They also hold meetings, back campaigns, and help organize the Junior-Senior Banquet. Caught in the confusion of crepe paper are Suzanne Carroll, Gayle Grenier, Donna Fournier, and Betty Feehan.

Teachers, parents, girls, and a getting-acquainted spirit are the ingredients necessary for a successful Open House.

Just as Open House promotes unity within the class, so do the class officers. School loyalty and activities are sparked by the enthusiasm and encouragement instilled in the girls by their leaders.

From making decorations for a dance or a banquet to writing a script for an assembly, the juniors prove that they are a part of the whole group making up our school. Although each of the activities serve a different purpose, some things remain constant. Each one is directed by energetic officers: Donna Fournier, president; Gayle Grenier, vice-president; Betty Feehan, secretary; and Suzanne Carroll, treasurer. All activities are attended by many types of young teenagers, present for the same purpose - fun.

The Holy Spirit Sanctifies Through Individual Souls

"Come, Holy Spirit, and teach me all things." This short ejaculation becomes a special prayer of the junior class, for it is in this year that they study the mysterious works of the sanctifying love of the Third Person of the Blessed Trinity. These works are studied as they appear in Himself, in the Church, in His operations in the Church, and in ourselves as temples of the Holy Spirit. Juniors also study the fifth and sixth commandments and the virtue of temperance.

The Curtains "Talk"

Under the direction of Mrs. Rosemary Hill Wernert, the Senior Class of 1964 presented a revival of William Marchant's comedy "Desk Set." Originally performed on Broadway starring Miss Shirley Booth, "this rollicking, frolicking hit" to quote the reviews, won acclaim for its star, its author, and its own rich hilarity.

"Desk Set" is called a revival, for it was first presented on our stage in 1957. Its success at that time was attributed to the fact that it was the first time the cast included boys.

As the curtains close on Act I, Susan Feeney welcomes the audience to the production.

Nobody should ever consider his education complete. You can't go wrong by getting as much schooling as possible. So strongly does Toledo Edison feel about this that we finance three scholarships a year at the University of Toledo.

Lots of college graduates find Toledo Edison a good place to work. Investorowned electric companies offer interesting careers in many fields. You might want to look into this.

Yes, many of our prescription customers come to Walgreens because of our LOW PRICES.

But not for low prices alone.

More important — to them and to us — is the QUALITY of our prescription service.

There is no finer.

THE QUALITY MARK TO LOOK FOR

What a wonderful Open World

Have you noticed schools like this on your travels? Probably, because new buildings are springing up everywhere. They are beautiful and functional structures with large glass areas to create an "open-world" atmosphere to eliminate the feeling of being boxed in.

Wherever you live, work, shop or travel, you'll find L.O.F Glass making it more enjoyable. In homes, motels, schools and stores. In offices and factories. In hospitals and churches. In cars, buses, trains and planes.

There's an L·O·F Glass that insulates windows. It's called Thermopane® insulating glass. Another subdues sun heat and glare. L·O·F Glass that makes automobiles safer, L·O·F Glass to do a thousand things.

And when anyone needs glass, there's an authority on it nearby-your local independent L.O.F Glass Distributor or Dealer. His name is in the telephone book Yellow Pages under "Glass", Call him.

Laboratories, shops and studyrooms are separated from twin classroom buildings by a broad, central court, Ithaca Senior High School, Ithaca, N.Y. Architects: Perkins & Will. White Plains, N.Y.
